

Welcome:

Greeting:

The Light has come;
a light in a dark stable,
a light for darkened lives,
a light which shines in every place,
the Light of eternal truth.

As we celebrate the birth of the Christ-child today,
May the Lord be with you

And also with you

Moment of Stillness:

Advent Candles: All four candles are lit and then the Christ Candle

On the first Sunday in Advent we lit the candle for Hope .
On the second Sunday we lit the candle for Peace.
On the third Sunday we lit the candle for Joy.
and on the fourth Sunday we lit the candle for Love.

Today, on Christmas Day, we light the white Christ candle to celebrate the birth of Jesus and that he is present with us today.

This is the mystery of Christmas – the Christ who is come, is still coming.

We light this candle
for the baby of Bethlehem,
for the child born to be king,
for the boy in the cradle
who became the man on the cross,
the Redeemer and Saviour of the world.
The darkness is overcome, the light is around us.

Acknowledgement First Peoples:

As we gather to worship God, we acknowledge the sovereign First Peoples of this country on which we gather today; the Gadigal and Wangal people. And we pay our respects to their Elders past and present, together with all descendants.

We commit ourselves to support Voice, Treaty, Truth – justice for First Nations Peoples.

Carol: Hark the Herald Angels Sing

1 Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King:
peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic hosts proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem!"

Refrain:

Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King"

2 Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
born that we no more may die,
born to raise us from the earth,
born to give us second birth. [Refrain]

Call to Worship

And the time came.

The morning birdsong carolled the news
as the daylight hung gently over the stable and celebrated the new life within.

The echoes of angels bringing joy could be heard across creation.

Christ has come bringing love and peace!

Undaunted by rejections and searchings for a home,
the Child of God lies waiting to meet all who will come.
Here, among the ordinary, in the humblest of places,
the beauty of holiness is born.

This is Christmas Day and we will rejoice!

Opening Prayer

We give thanks to God
for the truth has come:
truth that challenges the proud,
truth that lifts up the lowly,
truth that brings justice and hope,
the truth of eternal life.

We give thanks to God
for the life has come:
the life of God in a new born child,
life vulnerable and precious,
life which conquers death's power,
the new life of the Kingdom of God.

We give thanks to God
for the king has come:
a King who brings peace,
a King who brings healing,
a King who shares our weakness,
a gentle King whose name is love.

Lord Jesus Christ,

whose coming sets us free,
let your light shine in us,
your truth change us,
your life renew us,
for you are the Holy Child of Christmas.

AMEN.

Carol: While Shepherds watched

1 While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
all seated on the ground,
an angel of the Lord came down,
and glory shone around.

2 "To you, in David's town, this day is born of David's line
a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
and this shall be the sign:

3 "The heavenly babe you there shall find
to human view displayed,
all simply wrapped in swaddling clothes
and in a manger laid."

4 "All glory be to God on high,
and to the earth be peace;
goodwill henceforth from heaven to earth
begin and never cease."

Prayer of confession:

Let us pray

O gentle Christ,
we are sorry for the times when we have made no room for the wonder of your life,
or failed to protect its vulnerability among us.
We kneel before your birthing,
knowing how human we have been, and will be.

Silent reflection

Receive us again in love, Jesus Christ.
Gather us around the cradle of your coming, we pray.

Forgive us if we have not prepared a place for you in the community around us,
in the initiatives for loving justice
and the sheltering of the struggling people here.

Silent reflection

Receive us again in your love, Jesus Christ.
Gather us around the cradle of your coming, we pray.
Amen.

Words of Assurance:

Today, of all days, we know that grace is ours.
There is no time when this is not the gift of our God for all humankind.
As we come before the newborn Christ,
we are forgiven!
Thanks be to God.

Peace:

Welcome each other. Welcome the stranger.
Welcome all who come.
As Christ welcomed everyone, no matter what their background,
let us open our hearts and lives.
Let us be Christ to everyone we meet.
The peace of the Christ-child be with you
And also with you.

Carol: Once in Royal David's City

1 Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed,
where a mother laid her baby
in a manger for his bed:

Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ, her little child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven
who is God and Lord of all,
and his shelter was a stable,
and his cradle was a stall:
with the poor, and mean, and lowly,
lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And our eyes at last shall see him,
thro' his own redeeming love;
for that child so dear and gentle
is our Lord in heaven above:
and he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.

Moment for the young at heart:

Bible Reading:

Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.

³You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.

⁴For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.

⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors
and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

⁶For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;

and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
7 His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness
from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Luke 2:1-20

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. 2 This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 All went to their own towns to be registered. 4 Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. 5 He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. 6 While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. 7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

8 In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9 Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. 10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: 11 to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah,^[a] the Lord. 12 This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host,^[b] praising God and saying,

14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favours!"^[c]

15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." 16 So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. 17 When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; 18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. 19 But Mary treasured

all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Short Reflection:

Moment of Stillness:

Prayers of the People:

When the leader says "Where there is darkness Lord", please respond with "Let there be light".

Let us pray:

This Christmas, as we remember the birth of Jesus in a stable, we are reminded that hope comes in unexpected ways and in unfamiliar places. We pray for the work of midwives and medical staff, who care for mothers and babies. And especially for those who have babies around the world in unsafe conditions.

Where there is darkness Lord,

All: Let there be light

This Christmas, as we remember the violence used by the soldiers searching for Jesus, we are reminded that conflicts still have devastating effects of children and families trapped between warring sides. We pray for conflict zones and look for peace.

Where there is darkness Lord,

All: Let there be light

This Christmas, as we remember the flight of Jesus' family to Egypt, we are reminded of the plight of people forced to flee from homes and possessions. We pray for refugees and asylum seekers.

Where there is darkness Lord,

All: Let there be light

This Christmas, as we remember the homeless Holy Family, we are reminded on the millions of families now who have no shelter and who face eviction. We pray for all homeless people across the world.

Where there is darkness Lord,

All: Let there be light

This Christmas, as we remember those who went to the stable, we are reminded that we need to make a journey. We pray for ourselves that as you have come to us, we may also come to know you, to know you and to love you more as we serve other people.

Where there is darkness Lord,

All: Let there be light

Amen

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father in heaven
hallowed be your name.
your kingdom come
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread
forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us in the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom the power and the glory are yours.
Now and forever.
Amen

Giving thanks: The congregation share good news

Community News:

Offering Prayer:

O Christ, today we join those who first offered
you their gifts as we bring our own to you.
We pray that they will make a life-changing difference to the work of Wesley Mission with the people who are homeless this Christmas.
Amen.

Carol: O Come all ye Faithful

1 O come, all ye faithful,
joyful and triumphant,
come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come and behold him
born the king of angels:

Refrain:

O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
Christ the Lord!

2 Sing, choirs of angels,
sing in exultation,
sing all ye citizens of heaven above,

'Glory to God,
glory in the highest': [Refrain]

3 Yea, Lord, we greet thee,
born this happy morning,
Jesus, to thee be glory given;
Word of the Father
now in flesh appearing: [Refrain]

Christmas Blessing:

May our lives and our prayers be like lights shining in dark places.
And may the blessing of God – Creator, Christ-Child and Spirit fill our hearts and homes with light this Christmas and in the new year to come.

3-fold-amen
